1. Union patrons are expected to respect the facilities and the rights of other individuals. Any person in the facility who engages in any disorderly conduct, including verbal or physical abuse of any employee or other person is subject to immediate removal from the facility and possible loss of privileges.

2. Patrons of the Arkansas Union facility and its grounds must abide by University regulations as well as Federal, State, and Local laws.

3. All groups using University space are expected to adhere to the Fayetteville Policies and Procedures on use of university facilities and outdoor space and Arkansas Union policies.

4. All students using the facility are expected to abide by the University’s student code of conduct.

5. Activities or functions held in the Arkansas Union cannot be in conflict with existing businesses in the Union.

6. Discrimination in the use of the Arkansas Union facility regarding disability, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or nationality is prohibited.

7. All academic classes are scheduled through the Office of the Registrar.

8. Animals: Animals are strictly prohibited from inside the Arkansas Union, except for registered service animals (whether in service or in training). Animals may not be used for fundraising activities. The University of Arkansas has a campus policy prohibiting pets on campus. Use of animals must conform with the university’s policies on safe animal handling, and permission must be obtained from the Office of Research Compliance before animals are used in any capacity for events in the Union.

9. The Arkansas Union’s hours are available on its website. The Arkansas Union may also close or have different hours over breaks and during inclement weather.

10. The Arkansas Union reserves the right to change, modify, add or remove portions of these terms at any time without notice at our sole discretion, and, unless otherwise indicated, such changes will become effective immediately.
B. RESERVATION POLICIES

1. Reservable spaces in the Arkansas Union may only be used with confirmation from the Arkansas Union Event Services Office. Event/Meeting Spaces and Informational Tables must be reserved in advance at http://unionevents.uark.edu.

2. All reservable spaces and equipment are first-come, first-serve. Exceptions to this are at the discretion of the Union Director.

3. All billing arrangements must be made prior to the start of an event, including University cost center numbers, billing addresses, and required deposits. Any rejected payment methods may be subject to additional fees. Past-due invoices may result in cancellation of future reservations.

4. For large reservations, the Arkansas Union may require a nonrefundable deposit prior to the start of the event.

5. Recognized Student Organizations (RSOs) and University departments may make weekly recurring reservations for an academic year beginning February 1st of the previous spring semester. Exceptions to this timeline must be approved by the Union Director.

6. Arkansas Union Staff may move or adjust reservations as required to optimize space in the facility and provide best-fit services to guests.

7. All reservations in the facility will fall into one of three billing categories: RSO/Department, Sponsored, and Non-University.
   a. RSO/Department events are those put on by student groups or departments for university purposes, for student, faculty, and staff audiences, with no external partnership or funding.
   b. Sponsored events are those put on by student groups or departments, which may or may not be for university purposes or have a university-targeted audience, and may involve external partnerships or funding.
   c. Non-University events are those not put on by student groups or departments, without a university purpose or university audience, and use an outside funding source.

8. The Union defines “fronting” as an RSO or department using their rate structure to benefit an outside entity, without meeting all requirements for the lower rate. Any RSO or department caught “fronting” will be required to pay the proper rate for their reservation and may have future reservations cancelled.
9. The Arkansas Union Director will have the final say in whether an event meets the requirements for a given rate structure. Current rate structures are available at the Arkansas Union website.

10. Reservable rooms and spaces are not intended to be used for individual studying or group projects, except when reserved by the organization or held as such by the Union Director. Thesis defenses and other significant academic events must be reserved by professional staff of the corresponding university department as an official departmental event. Certain rooms designated by the Union as study rooms are exempt from this policy.

11. Reservations should begin and end when scheduled. The Arkansas Union may assess fees for late cancellations, no-shows, late starts, and late finish meetings. Events outside normal building hours or requiring special setups may also be assessed charges.

12. Events may be cancelled if the proper information (including setups, tech needs, artist riders, billing info, and other information) is not received from the organizer within 5 working days prior to the event’s start time. This may require a setup meeting or other communication.

13. The Arkansas Union recommends that all events scheduled to take place outdoors schedule an alternate location in case of rain. If the Arkansas Union is used as an “in case of rain” location, then the rain call must be made at or before 5pm the day preceding the event.

14. During emergency situations, the Arkansas Union performs as follows:
   a. If the university is closed due to inclement weather, a campus incident, or other emergency, all reservations in the Arkansas Union will be cancelled automatically. The Arkansas Union will remain open to act as a safe building, at the discretion of the Union Director.
   b. If the university does not close, but inclement weather or campus conditions either pose a threat to the Union’s safety or require the Union’s resources, the Union Director will make the decision if events are to be cancelled.

7. Security Assessment: If (1) an event is expected to have 500 or more people in attendance; or (2) a security assessment is requested by an Arkansas Union or university official; or (3) in the opinion of the organizer, the event might require security, the organizer must contact UAPD at least 3 days prior to the event to enable an assessment of potential security needs, including estimated costs to the organizer. UAPD must certify that this review has been completed to Union Administration. If UAPD recommends that security be provided for the event, UAPD will provide a brief description of the expected arrangements and estimated costs; such costs shall be the responsibility of the event organizer. NOTE: If the event is using Associated Student Government (ASG) funding, the security assessment must be included in the budget 5-7 weeks in advance of the event.
